1. The Argentine government has reportedly furnished statistics and technicians for a study of the possible nationalization of the Brazilian petroleum industry and for the proposed Latin American Petroleum Congress which is tentatively set for April 1949 in Rio de Janeiro.
2. The Argentine Communist Party (CPA) is anxious to participate in such a congress. The CPA is planning to send three or four professional agitators from Buenos Aires to attend the Congress, provided Brazilian visas can be obtained for them. Communist delegates from Montevideo will also attend the congress if it is held.
3. Labor circles in Buenos Aires believe that the congress may be either postponed or cancelled.
